

CROSS-FIRING IN THE HOUSE

Boyle, of Sturgeon, and Bennett, of Calgary, Clash with Heads of Government

NOTHING HEARD OF CUSHING

Opposition Demands Reason for his Absence from Government Benches and Censures Clerk of Council

Several members who have not seen a real live debate in the legislature, seemed pleased with the session of yesterday. There was some snap to it. The government found that R. D. Bennett, who chooses to be called the "junior member for Calgary," is some opposition. Opposition also linked where Mr. Boyle, member for Sturgeon, has his seat. Premier Rutherford was assailed behind and before but did not meet the forces single handed. He was supported by Attorney General Cross, while the rank and file of the Legislature were interested spectators.

On the first opportunity, Mr. Boyle, Sturgeon, rose to a question of privilege. He said it would appear that copies of documents that had been prepared for presentation to the House had been given to the newspapers. This was considered an act of discourtesy and breach of privilege as all documents should be reserved from publication until laid on the table. Before resuming his seat Mr. Boyle asked whether the Premier was prepared to place all documents of interest to the House on the table and particularly those in connection with the guaranteeing of the bonds of the railways. If the premier was not prepared he proposed to move a resolution to get the information.

"I gave no instructions that any information should be given to the newspapers," briefly replied the premier.

Mr. Boyle: "Let me know whether I must move a resolution."

"All returns are brought down under command of the Lieut. Governor. As soon as that is done all documents will be forthcoming."

Mr. Boyle: "Does that mean that I must make a motion."

"I did not say so. I shall see that all papers are brought down."

FAMILY DRANK WOOD ALCOHOL

Father and Son Dead as a Result—Tragedy on Homestead Near Stettler

Stettler, Feb. 17.—On Saturday last three homesteaders, a father and two sons, named Sien, living sixteen miles from Castor, bought some wood alcohol from a Castor chemist. On arriving home they each drank a portion, the eldest taking most and going to bed, where he made no sound, and must have died right away. The father went to sleep and awoke in great pain and got the second son started out for the doctor, but before aid arrived the father also died. The son who went for the doctor was also in bad shape and his life is despaired of. He was detained at Castor by the doctor and is now out of danger. The Mounted Police have the matter in hand.

NEW YORK HOLD UP AND MURDER

Desperadoes Raid the Lobby of Hotel and Kill One of the Guests

New York, Feb. 17.—Two desperadoes with drawn revolvers raided the lobby of the Waverley Hotel on the Bowery today and shot and killed Fred Doyle, a guest, who, when they demanded money for drinks, was only able to produce a dime, and then held up and robbed the clerk of the night's receipts. Less than $10 all told was the result of the hold-up and murder. The men ran out of the hotel after the shooting and a large force of detectives was at once started on their trail.

Mail from the Magdalen Islands Reaches Canada in a Barrel

Halifax, Feb. 17.—The cable between the Magdalen Islands and Cape North having become interrupted, the Islanders adopted as a means of getting messages to the mainland the plan of enclosing the letters in a barrel, sending this adrift on the waters. A barrel was picked up off the Cape Breton coast yesterday containing forty letters. These were received at the local post office last night and forwarded to their respective addressees.

MR. LEMIEUX MAKES REPLY

To Those Who Criticize Department's Action in Closing Postoffices on Sunday

BUSINESS DONE ON THAT DAY

Habits Alleged to have been Imported from the West and Aided by Previous Practice of the Postoffice

Ottawa, Feb. 17.—The question of the closing of the post offices on Sunday, together with a brief discussion of the postal department bill, constituted the chief business in the House yesterday.

Considerable opposition has developed in connection with the postmaster-general's decree that in future all post offices shall be closed on the Sabbath, and the minister was taken severely to task for issuing such instructions before the will of the people was learned. Mr. Lemieux in defence stated that there was no imperative reason why the offices should be kept open and that the order had been issued only after a careful investigation of the question. Mr. Alex Haggart of Winnipeg put a long series of questions to the postmaster-general in respect to the closing of the doors of the Winnipeg post office on Sundays. In reply to the question, "what are the reasons for such action?" Mr. Lemieux said: "Post offices have been closed in the West on Sundays in accordance with what is believed to be the spirit of the people of Canada, that Sunday should be observed as a day of rest, and a cessation from business. The principle of keeping the post offices open in the West was given, or rather taken, in early days when train service was scarce and irregular and the arrival of trains uncertain, when great numbers of people came into the country as settlers or prospective settlers, and their mail delivered on certain points where they could obtain their mail so that their progress in travelling should not be obstructed. Moreover, the offices were a great distance apart, and settlers only went for their mail on days when they were least busy, and when the exigencies of their business permitted them. This usually occurred on Sunday as even the settlers moved by the spirit of their training did not usually devote themselves to business and labor for financial gain, and a great majority went into towns, where the post offices were situated, for purposes of public worship.

Now the situation is entirely different, the country is becoming settled, is intersected in all directions by lines of railways and the mails are received as regularly and frequently in all centres of the West as in the older parts of Canada and the necessity which existed for the keeping of the offices open in the early days is no longer a valid reason for their being kept open today."

Hope of Nina Abandoned

Washington, Dec. 17.—All hope that the missing U.S. navy tug Nina which left Norfolk on February 6th, bound for Boston, with 32 souls aboard, is still afloat has been abandoned by the navy department and today the warships which for five days have been searching for the Nina were ordered to discontinue their hunt.

Hainer Hanged at Regina

Regina, Feb. 17.—Henry Hainer was hanged there this morning for the murder of a homesteader named Fraser near Margo. Holmes, a Regina man, acted as hangman at the execution. Hainer slept well last night and ate a first class breakfast this morning. He walked to the scaffold with a firm step and never for a moment lost his nerve. Hainer was fully penitent and confident of forgiveness for his crime. This was the first hanging at Regina since 1901, and the fourth in the history of the city, the first being that of the rebel Louis Riel.

PRICES 48 PER CENT. HIGHER

During Past Ten Than During Previous Ten Years—Report of Labor Gazette

Ottawa, Feb. 17.—The Labor Gazette for January contains the first results of the special inquiry which is being carried on by the department in reference to the cost of living. A statement is given dealing with the wholesale prices of animals and meats from 1890 to 1909. It shows that during 1909 wholesale prices were approximately 48 per cent. higher than during the ten-year period from 1890 to 1900.

The total number of homestead entries in Canada and the West during the calendar year of 1909 was 37,601, a decrease of 1,493 as compared with 1908.

Of 271 industrial accidents which occurred in Canada during January, 87 were fatal and 184 resulted in serious injury.

MR. CUSHING'S RESIGNATION

The Subject of an Extended Editorial Reference in a Calgary Newspaper

GREAT WATERWAYS RAILWAY

And the Arrangements that were Made with it—Stated that Premier will Assume Vacant Portfolio Temporarily

The Calgary News, the editor of which paper spent the first part of the week in Edmonton, last night made the following editorial reference to the political situation here:

"The resignation of Hon. W. H. Cushing as Minister of Public Works for the province of Alberta has been placed in the hands of his honor the Lieut.-Governor, and it is understood, has been accepted."

In the interests of the city of Calgary this is to be regretted as to the present it has been generally conceded that Mr. Cushing has been an able chief departmental head."

It would have been better if, before resigning, Mr. Cushing had called a meeting of his Calgary executive, either in Calgary or at the capital, as suited his convenience, to debate the advisability of leaving the city without a representative in the cabinet. The liberals of Calgary have been very loyal to Mr. Cushing in the past and it

TO-DAY IN THE LEGISLATURE

Advance Notice of what is Likely to Transpire there this Afternoon

The advance notice of what was going to happen in the legislature yesterday missed fire in one particular. The Premier refused to give any information as to the absence of the Minister of Public Works when asked by a private member, Mr. Boyle. It is presumed the Premier was not in a position to do so by reason of the fact that he had not been officially informed by the Lieut.-Governor, to whom the resignation was delivered. It is expected, however, that the situation will be changed today, and if a private member demands it the Premier will be in a position to state that Mr. Cushing has resigned, giving the reasons for such action.

A question which is slated to come up in the legislature sooner or later is the contract made between the government and the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway. It is expected that the first important debate and division of the House will be on this question.

The clerk of the executive council will be before the bar of the legislature today, as no notice of motion to this effect has been given.

FAREWELL TO LOVED PASTOR

Sorrowing Congregation Attends Funeral of Rev. E. E. Marshall at Noon Today

CHURCH FILLED TO DOORS

Many Tributes and Testimonies to the Faithful Life He Lived—Rev. Dr. Riddell Conducted the Service

McDougall Church was crowded to the doors at the noon hour today when a sorrowing congregation gathered to do honor to the memory of Edward E. Marshall, their late pastor. The funeral services were marked by simplicity, a fitting close to the career of a simple and sincere man. The casket, buried beneath a mass of flowers, the tributes of sorrowing people, nestled immediately beneath the pulpit from which the late minister has so often spoken.

Representatives of the various denominational and secular organizations occupied the platform and took part in the service. Many were the words of reverence and praise spoken by those who knew the late pastor.

"I found him a kindly spirit, a man that called forth all that was best in those that came in contact with him," said Rev. Joseph Coulter, of Wesley Methodist Church, who read from that portion of the scriptures containing the triumphant query "Oh, Death, where is thy sting? Oh, grave, where is thy victory?"

"But the measure of a man is not particularly in himself," continued Mr. Coulter. "I found as I went in and out the members of this congregation, that he had entered into the heart and life of every one of you."

"During his last illness, as I heard the anxious inquiries, I saw that his affliction was the affliction of the church. He is dead but he lives. All lives in the lives of the hundreds whom he has helped to a better life."

Rev. Dr. McQueen, representing the Ministerial Association; Rev. C. H. Heustis, of Red Deer, on behalf of the Methodist conference and Dr. Torry, president of the University of Alberta also spoke.

"It has been said that the leader of this congregation has fallen," said Dr. McQueen. "Let us say rather that he has risen. He has been promoted."

"He was known to few of us when he came among us, but before he had attended many conferences he won his way into our hearts. We respected him. We loved him," said Rev. C. H. Heustis.

"There was about him an apparent, a visible goodness," said Dr. Torry. "Brother Marshall has been climbing the hill until he has reached the summit upon which stands the city of God. He has disappeared from our sight but he is the larger vision."

The remains will be shipped to Toronto this afternoon where the interment will take place.

London, Ont., Feb. 17.—A mad dog came into the village of Dashwood, six miles from Exeter yesterday, bit about twenty dogs and many horses and cows before it was killed. Government inspectors have hurried to Dashwood and will quarantine all animals bitten.

U. S. CRUISERS FOR PACIFIC

Seattle, Feb. 16.—According to word received at the navy yard today the U. S. armored cruisers Montana and North Carolina are to come around the Horn and join the armored cruiser squadrons of the Pacific fleet. The two fine cruisers which were built on the Atlantic coast were ordered to Buenos Ayres to take part in the Argentine celebration in June. They will use the cruisers Washington and Tennessee at that port and following the ceremonies to be held there, will come to this yard for docking and repairs.

It is believed to be the intention of the navy department to keep the Montana and the Carolina on the Pacific coast station.

Such Agreements as that with Germany Greater Guarantee of Peace than Armaments

Toronto, Feb. 17.—Interviewed today on the announcement of removal of the German surplus, W. H. Brock of the wholesale drygoods firm of W. R. Brock & Co., Ltd., and former Conservative M.P. for Centre Toronto, said: "I think such agreements between countries, as this completed with Germany, are greater guarantees of peace than all the money spent upon armaments."

Mr. Brock deprecated the constant talk of Germany being about on the verge of war with Great Britain. It is business and not war that Germany is looking for, said Mr. Brock, and these business treaties are the best and surest aids of peace.

ARE CHICKENS COMPANIONS?

Dr. Whitelaw's Opinion is Asked on this Question by Anxious Housewife

"Are people allowed to let their chickens live in the house with them?" was the unusual inquiry in anxious feminine tones, that came to Dr. Whitelaw, medical health officer, over the telephone this morning.

"Why," said the doctor, "I suppose you may if you wish."

"Oh, it's not me!" came the indignant if ungrammatical response. "It's one of the neighbors."

"Why, yes, there is no law to prevent people from keeping chickens in their houses," replied the health officer. "Lots of people keep cats and dogs, so I suppose if they want to keep chickens, or even let as pets, they may."

"Well, but if the people get sick, and the chickens come out they would spread the disease," said the complainant, "and so they would be dangerous."

Upon this aspect of the case being presented to him, Dr. Whitelaw promised that the matter would be looked into.

AGREEMENT WITH GERMANY

It is a Fruitful Topic of Discussion on Both Sides of the Ocean

TRADE INCREASE PROBABLE

London Tariff Reform Papers do not Like the Prospect—Opinions Expressed in Montreal

Montreal, Feb. 17.—Coming as a complete surprise to the great majority of Montreal business men, the new commercial arrangement with Germany was the chief object of discussion in local commercial circles today. The big increase in trade which should be to the advantage of both countries is regarded by many manufacturers and importers as the certain outcome of the new commercial arrangements. From other quarters, come opinions which do not regard the change with whole-hearted delight. Was it a moment to make such reconciliation with Germany? Is there not a prospect that in the very near future the British Government will be prepared to give Canada such advantages in the way of a tariff as would lead to as great or greater commercial openings than offered by Germany's agreement? "Has not Canada forestalled this in such way as to prevent such happy consummation? Manufacturers especially of such lines as jewelry, steel machinery and metal goods are somewhat indignant. To many of them the introduction of German manufacturers under the low tariff counts as a heavy blow."

Feeling in Berlin

Berlin, Feb. 17.—The liveliest satisfaction is expressed here over the German-Canadian agreement. The Berliner Tageblatt says the new agreement which is surely the beginning of an extraordinary rejuvenation of mutual trade relations deserves to be greeted most warmly.

In London

London, Feb. 17.—Under the heading "Canada Cannot Wait" the Daily Mail devotes an editorial to the German-Canadian treaty which elsewhere is described as a blow to British trade and says there is good reason to believe that the Dominion government waited to see the issue of the struggle for tariff reform in England before taking a step for the removal of the tariff. "It will be bad news for Yorkshire and Lancashire, but so long as the people of this country refuse to make tariff agreements with the states of the Empire they cannot complain," concludes the Mail.

The Standard, referring to the possibility of further negotiations between Canada and Germany, relies on the sagacity of Canadian statesmen to see that tariff reform cannot be delayed much longer. It adds that it would create an uneasy feeling in London financial circles if the Dominion were to complain now that Germany has abandoned her rather high handed methods.

ALREADY BETTING ON TIGERS

Detroit Fans Lay 10 to 7 Hughey Jennings will Annex Another Pennant—Look on Athletics as a Contender

Detroit, Feb. 17.—With the snow still on the ground and the opening of the racing season still weeks ahead, the old rivalry which has so long existed between the Detroit Tigers and the Philadelphia Athletics has broken out with a degree of intensity which can only be considered rational on the eve of the crucial series of the year.

A backer of the Philadelphia club is now in Detroit with a sum of money ranging up into the thousands, which he is placing in the various handbooks throughout the city, at the best available odds, the wager, of course, being that the Athletics defeat the Tigers in the 1910 season's play, club against club.

The Philadelphia has invariably naked and received odds on the proposition.

One wager of $1000 to $500 was made in a local handbook, the proposition being that the Athletics defeat the Tigers in the 1910 season's play, club against club.

Another wager of $200 to $170 was made by a local sporting goods dealer. News of other bets places the odds about at this ratio.

HOW ABOUT AN EDMONTON TEAM?

The Winnipeg Correspondent of the St. Louis Sporting News Seems to Forget the Existence of This City

The Winnipeg correspondent of the Sporting News, who writes under the pen name "Pipe," informs the American public that Medicine Hat, Calgary, Moose Jaw, Regina, and Lethbridge have signified their intention of playing in the Western Canada League this coming season. We beg to inform the man with the dope monkey that Deacon White has already about fifteen players signed up for 1910 and that a team called Edmonton may have something to say in the disposal of this year's pennant.

ANOTHER BEAUTIFUL DREAM.

Charles Dorin, manager of the Phillies, says: "According to my notion, it was only a lucky accident that allowed New York to beat out Cincinnati last year. And I don't think it likely that the same kind of accident will help the Giants to repeat their feat. Watch them drop this year. They'll be lucky to finish anywhere in the first division, for both the Reds and Phillies will beat them out. And Pittsburgh will have a better fight than last year for that pennant. Chicago will be stronger because Chance will be back in the game, and his presence at first base means a whole lot to the Cubs. The Reds will be better, because their new man who made such a great showing last year will be seasoned next year, and the team will work more smoothly together. The Reds seem good in every department. And the Phillies will be better because the manager is allowed to run the team without interference on the part of the clubowners."—Sporting News.

ADANAC DEFEATED LACOMBE TEAM

Touring Players from Little Saskatchewan Town Won by 4 to 3—They Play Settler To-night—Wish to Arrange Games with Local Teams

When a hockey team takes a two days' journey, part by mixed freight, to advertise their home town, it shows that inhabitants with sporting inclinations are the best kind to have.

We had a visit this morning from Edward Neil, manager of the Adanac Hockey Club. On being asked where Adanac was and why, Mr. Neil informed us that it was a little town of 85 inhabitants, all told. It is situated 116 miles west of Saskatoon, just about where the C.P.R. and C.N.R. branch off.

But don't think that this team cannot play hockey. Last night they defeated Lacombe 4 to 3 on the latter's ice, and tonight they meet Settler in that city. They are arranging games with Red Deer, and Mr. Neil is in town to try and make arrangements with some City League team. Up to date he has been unfortunate as it is impossible to get the Thistle Rink this week and the Adanac team may not be able to wait until next. However, if they can get on a Saturday game in Red Deer, it is altogether probable they will play here on Monday or Tuesday.

The players are nearly all home-steaders and three are married men. One is Ontario boy, coming from the neighborhood of Coldwater and Orillia. The team is led by C. Caldwell, point; Alexander, cover; H. Phillips, rover; Snel, centre; N. Palmer, left; Jacobs, and right; G. Thompson.

The Adanac (Canada spelled backwards) team will play about three more games, probably in Calgary, Regina, and Saskatoon, on the return journey. They have defeated all the teams in their district and this tour was undertaken for the love of the game and to advertise the new town. All are slim-pure amateurs.

It is to be hoped Edmonton will get a chance to see this bunch perform here next week.

TIGERS VS. DEACONS.

The Tigers, having practically cinched the city league championship, are out for all comers, who can qualify, and have already arranged to play in Lacombe, Strathcona, and against the mighty Deacons of Edmonton. Arrangements have already been made to bring the strong Moose Jaw team to this city. Moose Jaw has been considered the strongest team in the west this season and they should make the Tigers go some. The Tigers, however, believe that they can clean up on them and will make a desperate attempt. They have been playing strong and strong each succeeding game and are now without doubt the best in this neck of the woods—Calgary Herald.

Gordon Roberts and Bruce Ridpath purchased several valuable mining claims at Cobalt, and will start development next spring. Both the wing men played well. Ridpath was with Cobalt last season, and he risked pretty well—Ottawa Free Press.

STETTLER DEFEATS DEACONS LAST EVENING BY 8 to 3

The Strathcona Boys on the Stettler Team were very Speedy, Especially Lynn and Sutherland

THE DEACONS MISS MCGANNON

The Total Score on the Two Games is 16 Goals Each, Stettler Tying Score Just Before Bell Went for Full Time—Strathcona Routers were Present in Great Numbers and Yelled Lustily for the Visitors—Lynn and Gaurneau were Goal-Keepers for their Teams We have no Excuses

All hockey dope was shattered last evening when Stettler put up over Deacons by a score of 8 to 3, making the goal total on the two games 16 to 16. Stettler strengthened their team by the inclusion of Kent, lately with the Lacrosse-Hockey team of the Calgary City League. He played cover-point and strengthened them where they were weak on Tuesday evening. Gill played point; and did well, while Raikes found his good eye again. Jim Sutherland was missing from the forward line and Lee took his place. All the Stettler forwards played like chain lightning with Lynn and Bud Kent probably the most prominent.

Rus Allan in Deacons' goal had strictly an off night, but don't think for a moment he wasn't busy. Far be it from. At one period of the game the missiles were flying around his goal like a swarm of bees. He was not so thickly that Deacon White went out to cry and get a ball insurance policy for him. Bill Banford was the best man on Deacons' team and was instrumental in saving many goals. Albion was good at times and at other periods of the game was bad. Kent and Lynn gave him a busy evening. Let us state right here that McGannon was missed and badly missed by the forward line. We always knew Mac was a star, but his absence last evening completely demoralized the Deacons' forward line. He was always the keystone of the combination work and last night there was nobody to start the ball rolling. Gaurneau and McKenney worked hard in centre ice, but were not effective. Dean and Gordon Banford were just as good as in previous games but missed McGannon sadly.

Stettler had the best of the play and there were three times as many shots on Allan as Raikes was called upon to stop. The first half was notable for the brilliant combination put up by the Stettler forwards. In the last half Deacons played better hockey, but the visitors had too big a lead to overcome. The attendance was not as large as on the previous night, but still there were 200 people present.

The officials, Burley and Campbell, kept the game clean and also caught all the off-sides. Stettler were the worst transgressors in this respect as 3 couple of their forwards are inclined to loaf. This is the first game the Deacons have lost on home ice since Christmas Day. The teams lined up:

JACK WINCHESTER HAS RETURNED

Edmonton Star Goal-keeper Picks Renfrew for the Eastern Championship—That is with an Even Break in Luck

The eastern climate seemed to agree with Jack Winchester, as he looks about five pounds heavier since his trip east. Jack says that the eastern hockey race is a peacemaker and in his opinion Renfrew has still an outside chance of annexing the silverware. The Shabans have a better chance of three wins, two losses and a drawn game with Shamrocks which they will certainly win on the play-off. Their two losses were in Ottawa and Montreal and there is no reason why they cannot turn the tables on them when the return games are played. Colah and Hailybury should be easy victims, so there you are. When the end of the season comes Ottawa, Wanderers and Renfrew should be no close chase that a blanket would cover all three.

Jack is firmly of the opinion, as shared by Deacon and the other Edmonton players, that a team challenging for the Stanley Cup should arrive in the east at least two weeks before the contest is to come off. This will give them a chance to get the dust of the long train journey and also to engage in practice games with different clubs.

For there is no practice like a real game. All danger of injuries crippling the team could be guarded against by taking three capable substitutes.

When Edmonton went on the ice for the first game they were seemingly in good shape, but the reaction of the long trip told on them. Added to this was the fact that Hay Miller had had only one workout in Ottawa, owing to Mrs. Miller's serious illness, which necessitated Hay being in the hotel all day. This accounts for Miller's mediocre showing, and it is the general opinion here that if the eastern critics had known what a strain Hay was laboring under they would have let him down a trifle easier in their accounts of the game.

Jack says that Whitford and Miller are showing up well for Renfrew and should be fixtures on the team. He also stated that Bert Boston was the only Shamrock forward that would go in on an opposing goal-tender. The others content themselves with long-distance shots which are useless in that fast company.

SCONA JRS. DEFEAT ST. MARY'S.

A really interesting game of hockey was played at the Scona rink Monday night when the local junior team defeated the St. Mary's of Edmonton by 4-2. This was exactly reversing the result of the former game at Horner's rink and the home boys took the game on their merits. There was much promising material brought to the notice of the railbirds during the game, and when these teams clash again it will be well worth while for the fan to drop in and see the play. The locals lined up: Goal, McCombs; point, Reddick; rover, S. McNally; rover, Latvel; centre, A. McNally; T.G. & L.; left, Lynn; referee, Sacke.

Among the "well known and popular" sporting men who are being considered for the job of refereeing the pending championship battle are Buck Connolly, Billy Job, Joe Tufts, and Dynamite Jack Thorby. This is a poor place for a gent with a valuable watch.

Montréal Star: J. Hall and J. Gardiner were playing opposite one another last night. Two leading exponents of the "knock his block off" side of work. The Shabs certainly missed Winchester. Baber couldn't stop a house and bit in the first half.

MORE ABOUT MIKE DONLIN

Mabel Hite's Husband is Certain to Hold Down his Old Job as Right Fielder for the Giants

New York, Feb. 15.—Perhaps the Giants will have the services of Michael J. Donlin, noted batsmith, next season, and perhaps they won't. One thing is certain—the New York public would be overjoyed to see Mabel Hite's husband covering right field for the McGraw troupe in 1910. Jack Murray could then be shifted to left, and with J. Bentley Seymour, who has promised to be real good this year, McGraw would certainly have a splendid outfield. He's got a pretty fair one now, for locally the opinion is prevalent that Al Shaw will prove to be a much better man than Billy O'Hara. Shaw always hit well up at the Brush Stadium and O'Hara seldom came through with the timely wallop. Of course, Shaw isn't in O'Hara's class as a fielder, but perhaps McGraw can teach the man from the West how to guard the outfield district. Johnny Murray wasn't a star subordinate when he first broke into the National League, but now there are few men who are in his class as a fielder.

If the Giants are to win the National League pennant next season, they will have to win it by their prowess with the stick. In 1908, when the McGraws ran second to the Cubs, the locals were not a well-balanced combination, but they could nevertheless hit the ball. That put them up in the van and almost landed for New York its fifth National League pennant. Had McGraw had another dependable pitcher that year, the Cubs would never have won their third straight pennant.

REGINA STAYS IN LEAGUE

The Bonepilers Decide to Retain their Franchise in the Western Canadian Baseball League

Regina, Feb. 16.—When the Western Canada Baseball League season opens Regina will be found to be still in the game. At the adjourned meeting of the professional baseball club held last night, it was definitely decided to stay with it. Public opinion is that with a shake-up in the management the club can be placed in good, sound condition. A showing will be made which will warrant the continuance of the public support accorded the game here last year.

and through the "wireless" came the astounding intelligence that their "august corps" were composed of the best known bunch of professionals in the service, as follows:

Right wing forward, Delisle May, F.C., alias and distinguished as "The Sunday School Kid."

Centre wing forward, H. Chaplin, R. C. "Girl in Edmonton" reason why this prof. wants to come up. "Too late now; she has left for parts unknown."

Rover, R. Lee, M. L. & Y., "the boy with the check glad rags"; used to play with the St. Mary's Point team.

A Serious Question

Mr. Bennett here took the floor and spoke as follows:

"This is a most serious matter, which involves the question as to whether the government is to be the servant or master of this house. I have a distinct recollection of an incident in the British House, of Commons where the speaker reprimanded David Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, because he had permitted papers intended for the house to be handed to the press. I know that the clerk of the executive council has handed out papers and I wish to have the government convey to the clerk that he is a civil servant and not a political busy-body. I wish also to draw the attention of the premier to the fact that he is the custodian of public papers and is open to censure for this action."

Hon. Mr. Cross: "The premier has stated that he had no knowledge that such things were done."

"No not himself," cried Mr. Bennett.

Hon. Mr. Cross: "No member of the executive gave instruction to the clerk to hand out papers."

Mr. Boyle: "It is the duty of the Speaker to see that the clerk appears before the bar of the house to make an apology or be dismissed from the service."

The question arose as to whether notice of motion for this was necessary. Mr. Bennett holding that it was not. He thought the ministers, if they were sincere, would be the first to call for an explanation. The speaker held that notice of motion was necessary.

"I don't intend to have any sincerity doubted," replied the Attorney-General, "I know nothing of it."

Mr. Bennett: "That sounds good, but there is nothing in it. I move that the clerk be called."

Premier Rutherford: "There is nothing in what the junior member for Calgary says, either."

Hon. Mr. Cross: "The speaker has ruled that notice of motion is necessary."

Hon. Mr. Cushing's Case

This was the preliminary skirmish, after which the House proceeded with the orders of the day up to the brink of adjournment. Then Mr. Boyle rose in his seat. He asked whether the House could be given any information as to why Mr. Cushing did not occupy his seat on the government benches. There was a rumor in the newspapers that he had resigned.

"There have been others rumors which seem to have had no foundation," remarked the premier. This was taken to be a reference to the report that the junior member for Calgary would resign from the province to be a corporation lawyer in Montreal.

"There is no intimation to give," said the premier when Mr. Boyle had concluded.

Mr. Boyle: "This house is entitled to some information. Mr. Cushing himself can make no statement without the consent of the premier."

"The government has no information for the house," reiterated the premier.

Mr. Bennett: "I recall the resignation of Hon. Mr. Blair in the Dominion House of Commons when it was held that the government was entitled to some information. It is a constitutional practice. It may be that the premier is under the impression that the legislature has no right to know. It would be well for him to take the people into his confidence."

This is said to be a new province making new precedents. It seems as if the government had one so devoted to the traditions of the Crown would depart from them and refuse this modicum of information."

The adjournment was put through without the information being added.

Routine Business

Petitions were presented to the House by Mr. Roberts, High River, respecting High River Hospital; by Mr. Boyle respecting a restriction on the alienation of married women by will; by Mr. Boyle respecting the incorporation of the Athabasca Landing Club.

The committee on standing orders having reported, Mr. O'Brien, Rocky Mountain House, moved the first reading of A Bill to Amend the Coal Mines Act, and John A. McDougall, the first reading of the Bill Respecting incorporation of the Salvation Army. Osh-er bills to receive a first reading were: Respecting the Glacien Club, introduced by Mr. Riley; Respecting the Western Canada Fire Insurance Co. and the Diamond Coal Co. introduced by Hon. Mr. Buchanan; Respecting the Town of Raymond, introduced by A. J. McLean, and Respecting witnesses and evidence, introduced by Mr. Cross. The premier secured the first reading of a Bill Respecting Raising Loans, authorized by the legislature. Mr. Bennett gave notice of questions that he will ask the government today or, if not possible today on Tuesday next. The questions refer to details in connection with the guaranteeing of railway bonds and certain details of the contract with the Alberta & Great Waterways Railways.

The house adjourned until today at 3 o'clock.

The World of Amusement

CHARMING PLAY TONIGHT.

Undoubtedly one of the events in the present dramatic season, is the engagement of the National Stock Co. which opens at the Empire Theatre. The stage manager of the company arrived last evening and today will have all hands busy, putting the Empire's stage in shape for the reception of the massive scenery and properties used in the various productions.

"Friends," that wonderful drama, by Edwin Milton Royle, is the play for tonight. This piece has scored one of the greatest dramatic triumphs in years. The National Stock Company tonight will present an exact duplicate of the New York production of "Friends." Gorgeous gowns, beautiful scenery and glittering electrical effects are a feature of this grand production.

One of the big scenes in "Friends" is the green-room and stage of the Metropolitan Opera House. This is positively the greatest stage set ever attempted on a local stage.

There has been a big demand for seats and the extremely reasonable prices should attract crowded houses to see this excellent company.

POINTERS!

FOR CANDIDATES IN VOTING CONTEST

Read Carefully all the "Pointers" and then Call at the Contest Department, Room 5, Norwood Building

HOW TO GET VOTES

Every issue of the Daily Capital, Saturday News and Alberta Homestead contains a voting coupon. Every one brought or sent to the contest department with a candidate's name written thereon will be counted. Get all of these coupons you can. Your friends who are now taking the Capital regularly will gladly give you these coupons, and many of them will pay some on their subscription in order to give you the votes. Each subscription payment calls for a certain number of votes—three months, 350 votes; six months, 1,000, and one year, 3,000. This is for the Daily Capital. A year's subscription for the Homestead calls for 1,000 votes. There is not a single candidate in the entire list who can not get at least 3,000 votes in a day among friends—if they are in earnest and desire to win one of the seven prizes. Seventeen. Note the number.

All out to Win

Many of your friends are willing and anxious to help you win the prize of your choice, and are only waiting to be asked. The first candidate to ask, of course, will be the one to receive the subscription and the votes, so it is imperative that those who desire to enlarge their count get among the people and make their cause known. It certainly does not require any sacrifice in this contest, but if you expect to win you should stick to the campaign and put your best energies behind your efforts to come out victorious. The prizes are surely worth the little effort required, and the time is comparatively short. Just show the people that you have determination to succeed in anything you undertake and that you are out to win.

Organize Your Friends

Remember that organization is a great help. Call a meeting of half a dozen or more of your friends. Tell them that you have made up your mind to secure one of these valuable awards and that you need their assistance. Get each one to promise to devote a few minutes of his time daily to that end. Get each one to promise to see at least three of his friends in your behalf daily and to secure their subscriptions. In other words: Start an endless friendship chain for the purpose of securing subscriptions. Don't be discouraged if some one gets ahead of you. The contest will only last a few weeks and in that time there will be many changes occurring in the list of contestants and the number of their votes.

Remember—

That to enter the contest you need not be a subscriber to the Capital. That you are not confined to your own district in securing subscriptions. That to enter and compete will not cost you any money.

That there are seventeen prizes, ranging in value from $500 down. That you cannot win one of these prizes unless your name is entered.

Receipt Books

Candidates and their friends should call at the contest department and secure receipt books and supplies. The sooner you start the sooner you will have something to your credit.

Contest department in the Norwood Building, Room 5, open from 9.30 to 6 during the day, also evenings this week.

would have been only fair to them that their executive had been consulted before the final step was taken.

The difference between Mr. Cushing and his colleagues has apparently existed for some time but became more apparent late last week and culminated on Monday last when the hon. gentleman determined to resign.

The nominal reason for the resignation is that Mr. Cushing is not in accord with his former colleagues in the matter of the agreement for the construction of the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway. His contention is that he was not a party to the agreement and was not present when the cabinet council meeting was held at which the agreement was passed; that it is not drawn up on the lines of the agreements with the other railways and in this regard he refers especially to the C. N. R. agreement; and that he has always held the view that the Great Waterways Railway agreement is not in accord with the railway policy of the province.

As against this the government takes the ground that Mr. Cushing was a party to the agreement; that the minutes of the meeting and the facts show that he was present when the agreement passed the executive council on October 7; that he was cognizant of the proceedings at all times; and that he let four months go by without taking any action contrary to the position adopted by the government on Oct. 7th.

Also they claim that the agreement with the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway Co. is practically on all fours with the agreement which was made with the C.N.R., and which Mr. Cushing takes no exception to except that in the case of the C.N.R. $10,000 a mile is stipulated and in the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway $20,000 a mile. Some have seen fit to take exception to the increased amount guaranteed in the latter case, but the explanation made by the officers of the government who drew up the agreement appears to be satisfactory to the cabinet. The C.N.R. guarantee is a large proportion of that line and in the construction necessary that railway will be able to get in its steel and other railway material over its main line and make a great saving in freight in doing so; again, as the C.N.R. and other established lines are always doing more or less construction work and general business they keep a regular survey and construction staff and a legal bureau attached to the main line which can be drawn upon at any time when additional branches are under way without materially increasing the cost to the company.

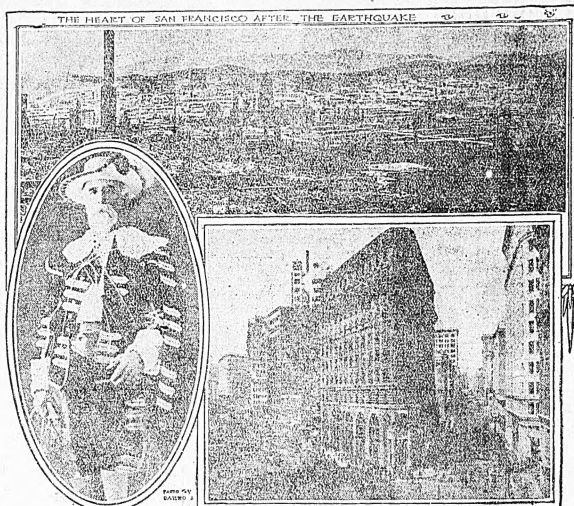

In the case of the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway it is contended that they have no main line connecting them with the eastern markets for steel and other supplies, and are at the mercy of the other railways as to freight and time of delivery, which means a large outlay in railway construction. Being a new company they are not able to minimize their legal, surveying and other expenditures by charging them up to the established departments in connection with a main line under operation and are called upon to bear the brunt of these additional expenditures as well as those in connection with the ordinary work of construction.

This is the story from both sides and the discussion of it has caused considerable commotion in Edmonton since the House opened. There are a few other side features, but the important line of cleavage appears to be as above stated and in connection with the Great Waterways Railway agreement.

At the Monday session of the House, Mr. Boyle, of Sturgeon, and Mr. Riley, of Gleichen, had a motion passed asking for documents and information bearing upon this feature of the case. When they are brought down and discussed it is probable will be in a better position to judge in the case.

Meanwhile, the tension at the capital has considerably lessened. It is understood that the premier will assume the duties pertaining to the public works department during the session and that no appointment to the position will be made during that period.

MR. LEMIEUX MAKES REPLY

the large towns and cities of western Canada has entirely disappeared.

Furthermore, it has been reported to the department by its officers by many leading citizens and men in religious and commercial life that the result of the business men obtaining their mail on Sunday has led to the transaction of business at these western points and forcing of employees to labor on Sunday almost as much as on week days at all events to a sufficient extent to interfere with their enjoying any advantage which might accrue by Sunday being a day of rest. The statement that conditions in the West differ from those in the east is due to the fact that not the mass of Western people, but a great number of business men have imported into Canada the practice of carrying on business on Sunday as on other days, notwithstanding that it is absolutely opposed to the best interests of labor and the laws and the spirit of the Canadian people, viz: that every man may enjoy, when possible, the benefit of Sunday as a day of rest.

In reply to other questions, Mr. Lemieux stated numerous commercial bodies, local branches of the Lord's Day Alliance, and business men, have asked that post offices be closed on Sundays. That the order applies to all chief cities and towns in the West, that the action of the department is not an experiment, but has been taken as a result of careful consideration, that the post offices are allowed to receive letters on Sundays because if outgoing trains were not caught, there would be serious delay, that the department is not aware that a large number of commercial men are said to pass Sundays in Winnipeg with their families to receive and answer their mail on that day, that it is difficult to say just how any officials of the post office will be relieved from work by the new order and that the action was taken as a result of a general circular sent by the department to the postmasters of the West.

STRATHCONA vs. LLOYDMINSTER

These Two Teams Will Play First Game in Latter Place Tomorrow—Winner Plays Red Deer

The Strathcona senior hockey team now has the chance of winning the district championship of the north in the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association, and very probably the provincial championship and the Rutherford Cup. They are called upon by the executive to play Lloydminster Friday night for the first of the home series for the northern finals, and if this trip can be negotiated the season is likely to wind up with a flourish in local hockey circles. The seniors are anxious to make the trip, and if these games can be won the cup games will in all probability be with Red Deer, likely winners of the central district. The future of the Edmonton Devonians to enter the league leaves the standing between Strathcona and Lloydminster. The trip depends upon the success of the campaign for funds, and in the interest of good amateur sport it is hoped that the necessary amount will be raised to prevent the Friday game going to Lloydminster by default. SPARKLETS

Gists from the Sporting Anvil

The Phillies' first squad left for their spring training grounds at Southern Pines, N.C., yesterday. Those in the party were: Doolan, Magee, Foxen, McQuillan, Bransfield, Knabe, Moren, and several youngsters. Kitty Bransfield is in charge of the squad.

If all goes well Ottawa and Wanderers will play a two-game series at the St. Nicholas rink, New York, at the close of the playing season in the east.

Eddie Hogan, the former Quebec star, who joined Herbie Jordan on the Renfrew sceptic, is out of the game for good this season with a painful injury to his right arm received in a practise game.

The Ottawa Journal did a real thoughtful thing last Saturday. This enterprising paper rented a large hall in Renfrew, installed a private wire from the rink-side and sent down a couple of men to read out the bulletins. All Renfrew (except those in Ottawa at the struggle), turned out en masse and heard how their team was defeated. A pleasant evening was spent. Imagine the Ottawa men reading the bulletins of the last ten minutes and trying to conceal their joy from the guests.

In a hockey match at Brockville last week between the old rivals, Prescott and Brockville, rough-house tactics prevailed. Wm. Kerr, brother of "Dubie" Kerr of the Ottawas, sure had his war point on. He was penalized 24 minutes.

Hockey fans are wondering why the Smith boys ever left home? First Harry is released by Hailybury and now dispatches say that Tommy has been handed his discharge papers by Brantford.

Speaking of Sir Thomas Lipton and another challenge for the America cup but why speak of it. The price of 30 moves sympathetically with that of the other necessities and does not call for special boosting at this time.

At the suggestion of A. J. McLean, M.P., the ferry at Taber will be removed to Nolan's Ford, on the Belly River, northeast of Lethbridge. This will be a great convenience to the farmers of the north country. The Nolan Ford is twelve miles east and eleven miles north of Lethbridge, about due north of Cypriale.

CHARLES T. MURPHY,
Leader of Tammany Hall, New York.

TO WAIT ON MINISTERS

Stock Growers Appear Delegation to Take up Various Matters With Them

The Central Alberta Stock Growers held a director's meeting in Stettler on Friday evening, February 11. There was a full attendance of the board.

The object of the meeting was to appoint a delegation to wait on the ministers of agriculture and public works and impress upon them the necessity of taking action during the present session on various matters which the association had brought to the attention of the government in the past, but without success.

The matters in question were a more effective inspection of brands, clearing the range of strays, curtailing the area in which bulls are permitted to run at large, and taking steps to prevent prairie fires.

The delegation consists of John Carlson, president of the association, Big Valley; Jas. Walters, of Pleasant Valley; T. Fisk, Pine Lake; and E. A. Whiteside, Stettler. The meeting with the ministers is arranged to take place on Thursday, February 17.

Serious Wreck in Georgia

Macon, Ga., Feb. 14.—In a collision between the southbound passenger train No. 5 on the Georgia Southern and Florida and north bound passenger train No. 2, about 10 miles north of here, this afternoon, eight passengers are reported to have been killed; four fatally hurt, their deaths being expected at any moment, and twenty others seriously injured. The passenger northbound left Macon an hour late and was making the curve beyond Sandy Creek running at high speed. Engineer Lusk and his fireman of the Shoo Fly, jumped and were saved from instant death, but the engineer was badly injured. What became of Engineer Yates and his fireman on No. 2 could not be learned.

Acknowledging Canada's Patronage

London, Feb. 11.—The Clydesdale Horse Society, having sent 1149 horses to Canada out of 1349 exported, has decided to invest $5,000 of its funds in Canadian securities as a small acknowledgment of patronage.

REIGN OF TERROR IN CANTON.

London, Feb. 15.—Despatches from Canton declare that a reign of terror prevails, that 500 persons were killed, and that 5,000 foreign drilled troops have continued and dissatisfaction is spreading rapidly. Foreign residents are in danger, and reinforcements have been rushed to the city.

It is feared that the trouble, which so far has been confined to the troops, will spread to the populace, which is already restive and the result will be an outbreak second in seriousness only to the Boxer troubles of a decade ago, righting in several quarters of the city is reported today, particularly near the east gate. When the authorities believed trouble quelled, the fighting was renewed with more seriousness. An edict forbidding foreigners entering into the city is strictly enforced. Many foreigners have gone from their quarters outside the city to Hong Kong.

Alberta Stock Growers' Association

A delegation representative of the Central Alberta Stock Growers' Association waited on the Minister of Agriculture at the government buildings this morning to impress upon him the necessity of taking action during the present session on various matters which the association had brought to the attention of the government in the past without success.

The matters in question were a more effective inspection of brands, clearing the range of strays, keeping scrub bulls off the range, curtailing the area in which bulls are permitted to run at large, and taking steps to prevent prairie fires.

Members of the delegation are John Carlson, Big Valley, president of the Association; Jas. Walters, Pleasant Valley; T. Fisk, Pine Lake; and Ed. Whiteside, Stettler.

THE SUSPECT WARD

A Statement from Dr. Whitelaw in regard to that at Isolation Hospital

Is there danger that the doctors of Edmonton will abuse the object for which their "suspect wards" were set apart in the Isolation Hospital? Medical Health Officer Dr. Whitelaw thinks that perhaps there is.

"Of course," said that official this morning to The Capital, "the suspect wards are intended to be used. They were set apart for cases in which the disease has not positively developed yet. But there is danger that the doctors of the city will send every little case of sore throat out there, and that would result in a perfect deluge of absolutely unnecessary 'suspect' cases. The doctors here have at their disposal a thoroughly qualified government bacteriologist, and if they would only send a swab from the patient's throat to Dr. Revell he could tell them positively whether or not there are any diphtheria bacilli present.

"Just at present," continued the doctor, "the nurses have to use the suspect wards as living quarters, as we have no residence for them. This summer I shall endeavor to get the committee to give me a properly equipped nurses' home, however, as we need one badly."
